SCREENING SCHEDULE

Film	YARDIE
Director	Idris Elba
Duration	101 minutes
Country	UK
Cast	Aml Ameen, Shantol Jackson
Language	English

Synopsis

“Yardie” tells the story of a Jamaican immigrant in London who becomes consumed with avenging the murder of his older brother. The title refers to the slang term for a Caribbean expatriate, usually of Jamaican origin. The film is the directorial debut of actor Idris Elba, who stays behind the camera though his onscreen presence would not be out of place here. One can easily see him in Sheldon Shepherd’s role as King Fox, the crime boss/mentor of wannabe music performer D (Aml Ameen). Elba’s skills as a helmer are not yet as refined as his considerable acting chops, but his firsthand knowledge of London’s Hackney borough gives the film a lived-in feeling, a sense of intimacy that registers onscreen in both quiet and violent moments.

Film	THE WHITE LINE
Director	Desiree Kahikopo
Duration	100 minutes
Country	Namibia
Cast	Charl Botha, Joalette De Villiers, Girley Jazama
Language	Afrikaans Subtitles: English

Synopsis

Set in 1963, after the Old Location uprising which shook South West Africa, a black maid's life is changed forever when she encounters an Afrikaner police officer on a routine passbook check. Their illicit love for each other grows over time through the letters they write to each other, and they endure many obstacles beyond their different skin colours. The White Line is an authentic Namibian story, that shows how apartheid laws were extended to the territory, prior to independence, under the South African administration.

Film	FLATLAND
Director	Jenna Baas
Duration	117 minutes
Country	South African, Luxembourg, Germany
Cast	Faith Baloyi, Ole Furtuine
Language	Afrikaans Subtitles: English

Synopsis

The world of lonely, middle-age policewoman Beauty Cuba changes forever when she receives a call for help from Billy, the lost love of her life who has recently been re-arrested for murder. Beauty returns to her home town of Beaufort West, deep in the heart of the surreal landscape of the Karoo semi-desert and quickly learns that this case is not as simple as she thought. The real culprit of this accidental murder is a painfully shy young woman named Natalie who flees her small, rural town on horseback and teams up with her now pregnant childhood friend Poppie to outrun the law. Flatland is a journey of self-discovery for these three different but equally desperate women, painting a vivid and unique portrait of femininity against a hostile frontier-land and questions what it means to be a woman in contemporary South Africa and the world at large.

Set in 1973, this coming-of-age portrait follows a group of young Rwandan girls at a Belgian-run Catholic boarding school, taking inspiration from true events that would come to foreshadow the 1994 genocide during the Rwandan Civil War. Many of the girls belong to elite families, while others hold less privilege; further division is sown by ballooning anti-Tutsi rhetoric under existing Hutu rule. The terrain is tense, but in the foreground lies a bewitching yet unassuming story of colonial refusal, flanked by adolescent mischief and curiosity that is surely typical but has, in this case, much higher stakes.

SCREENING SCHEDULE

Film	ROCKS
Director	Sarah Gavron
Duration	93 minutes
Country	UK
Cast	Bukky Bakray, Sarah Niles, Sahron D Clarke
Language	English

Synopsis

Shola (Bukky Bakray), or Rocks, as she's known, lives in a London council flat with her younger brother Emmanuel (D'angelou Osei Kissiedu) and their single mother. Mum is busy and stressed, leaving Rocks to spend all her free time with school friends. One day, she comes home to find her life radically altered: she is suddenly on her own with a child to take care of. Gavron could easily have steered Rocks into miserabilism, but delivers instead a surprising portrait of resilience. Rocks is mercurial, impulsive, and deeply sensitive - not unusual for her age, she sometimes makes desperately poor decisions, for what look to her like good reasons. When her closest friend Sumaya (Kosar Ali) tries to help, Rocks doesn't know how to accept it, blinded by Sumaya's two-parent household and relative comfort.

Film	IT MUST BE HEAVEN
Director	Elia Suleiman
Duration	97 minutes
Country	France, Qatar, Germany, Canada, Turkey, Palestine
Cast	Elia Suleiman, Gael Garcia Bernal, Kwasi Songui
Languauge	English, French, Arabic, Spanish, Hebrew Subtitles: English

Synopsis

Filmmaker Elia Suleiman travels to different cities and finds unexpected parallels to his homeland of Palestine. Filmed in his charming hometown of Nazareth and an oddly deserted Paris, with visits to New York and Montreal, a gossamer story is built around ordinary events and chance encounters. Playing himself without speaking a word for the whole film, the writer-director is an attentive, ironic observer of the human comedy in a world of global tension and paranoia. Here the search for identity and a homeland, a constant in his films, takes the form of a man looking for a quiet place to be himself and make movies.

Film	ONE HUMANITY
Director	Mickey Madoda Dube
Duration	110 minutes
Country	South Africa, UK
Cast
Language	English

Synopsis

One Humanity tells the story of how the world came to focus on the ending of the apartheid regime in South Africa, and the role played in this process by two star-studded concerts that were broadcast around the world in 1988 and 1990. The film explores how these added to the pressure on the South African government, which was weakened by a series of uprisings within the country, the erosion of western support and the end of the Cold War. And how this led to the country's first-ever democratic elections in April 1994.
